ScottishPower Renewables

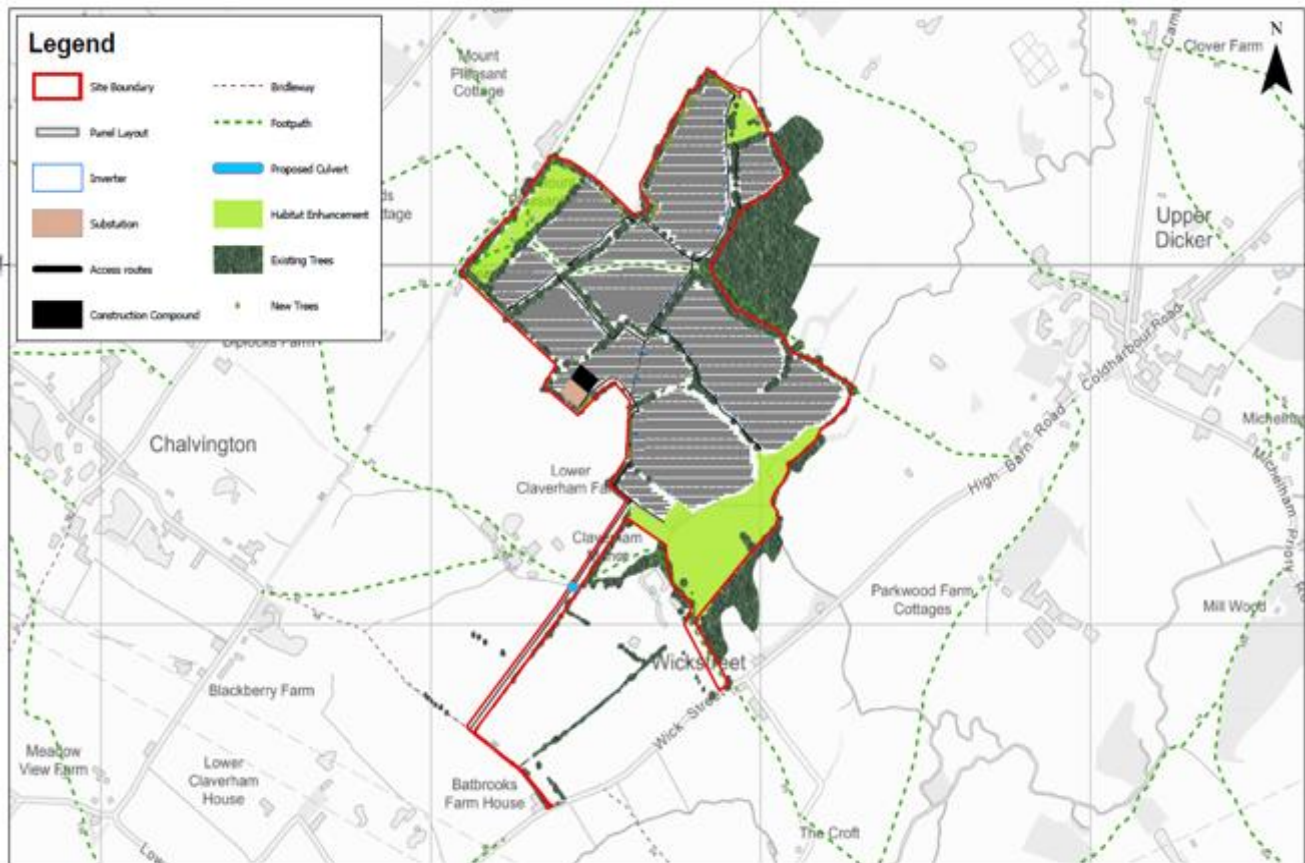

ScottishPower Renewables (SPR) is part of the ScottishPower group of companies operating in the UK under the Iberdrola Group, one of the world's largest integrated utility companies and a world leader in renewable energy. SPR is at the forefront of the development of the renewables industry through pioneering ideas, forward thinking and outstanding innovation. Its ambitious growth plans include expansion of its existing onshore wind portfolio, investment in new large-scale solar deployment and innovative grid storage systems including batteries. The company is also delivering the Iberdrola Group's offshore windfarms in the Southern North Sea off East Anglia. The company is investing millions of pounds every working day to make this happen and is committed to speeding up the transition to cleaner electric transport, improving air quality and over time, driving down bills to deliver a better future, quicker for everyone.

Why are we contacting you?

SPR previously held an online Public Information Event (PIE) in June 2021, informing the local community of the proposed Renewable Energy Development referred to as Pollards Solar Farm. SPR is hosting this drop-in event to update you on the progress of our proposal at Pollard Solar Farm and we invite your comments and engagement.

The Proposals

The proposed Pollards Solar Farm is planned to comprise solar photovoltaic (PV) panels covering an area of approximately 81.5 ha, with a predicted output of up to 49.9 MW onto the grid network. The solar development will be accompanied by associated equipment and cabling, with access maintenance tracks and site security. Pollards Solar Farm will also deliver habitat creation and enhancement measures. The primary access into the site will be via an existing shared access off Wick Street, currently used by Berwick Solar Farm and Lower Claverham Farm.
